

I am glad you see a need to regulate unwanted telephone calls.
Your regulation should be a minimum requirement for States to follow.
You should allow States to establish higher controls if their residents so desire. We are happy with the laws of Indiana protecting our privacy. I wish we had the same with junk mail.